

Chautauqua Orienteering Team Challenge Program Overview

Team Kick-Off

Teams huddle up at the start area ready to hit the trails. Rules are revealed and teams jump into action to develop a strategy that will earn the most performance points.

Collaborative Strategy

Teams work together to prioritize, plot a course of travel, tap into each team members strengths and skills, and multi-task to navigate to as many point earning opportunities as possible.

Teams in Action!

Teams hit the trails geared up with team backpacks, supplies, and team bandannas.

The Final Results & Team Celebration

Teams race to the finish. Judges tally the results and the winners are?!

Key Takeaways

- ✓ Understand the importance of evaluating the BIG picture before jumping into action!
- ✓ Increase trust across the team through on-going collaborative decision making and team consensus
- ✓ Engage the team to think outside of the box and question assumptions that might limit performance
- ✓ Provides teams the opportunity to manage shifts in strategy that require quick thinking and efficient adaptation

"The Chautauqua Orienteering Challenge exceeded our expectations! The team enjoyed taking a break from our meetings and truly connecting within their teams. A great way to energize the team. They are still talking about it!"

- Pipeline Deals

Ready, Set, Race!

Take a break from technology and experience the historic Chautauqua Park at the foot of the majestic Boulder Flatirons.

Vision and Strategy, Effective Execution, and the ability to Adapt the Plan leads to team success. It's not the fastest team that earns the most points, it's the smartest teams!

Get Your Team Out of the Office for an Adventure!

- Technology Free Zone
- Locate as Many Orienteering Flags as Possible
- Earn Bonus Points with Creative Team Photos!

Group Size: 25 – 250

Teams Size: 5 – 10

Program Length: 2.5 – 4 hours

Venue: Historic Chautauqua Park in Boulder, Colorado

